I love this time of year – Holiday parties, Christmas trees, Hot Chocolate and the spirit of generosity that seems to swell up in our society. There's something about peace on earth and goodwill towards men that makes me think about other people a little more than usual.

This December I'm inviting everyone connected to Trinity Baptist Church to participate in this year's Christmas Offering. This is the time of year where we put feet to our faith – where we show our community the love of Jesus. The idea here is that as we buy gifts for other people, we want our largest, most extravagant gift to go to Jesus. We'll split donations of this offering 50/50 to fund the following projects.

- Lottie Moon: Offering goes to help the International Mission Board of the SBC take the gospel to every tribe and tongue. Every dollar makes a difference because 100% of every dollar collected goes to reach every nation.
- Lexington Rescue Mission: Since 2001, the Mission has worked to rebuild lives that have been broken by poverty. Poverty steals peace. It crushes dignity. It destroys hope. However God is at work there rebuilding broken lives.

God has given us a great mission, and we're blessed to be able to join him in reaching our community for Christ and advancing the Gospel around the world.

One other note: DO NOT MISS OUR CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICE! December 24th at 6pm.

In Christ,
Pastor Quinton
